Model Rules

Aegis:

Bow:

Cold-Blooded: The model's Discipline Tests are subject to Minimised Roll.

Hand Weapon: All models come equipped with a Hand Weapon as their default equipment. If a model has any Close Combat Weapon other than a Hand Weapon, it cannot choose to use the Hand Weapon (unless specifically stated). Hand Weapons wielded by models on foot can be used alongside a Shield, then giving Parry

Palanquin: Universal Rule.

When the model is in a unit with Bodyguard, it gains Stand Behind. The model can be the General even if it is also the Battle Standard Bearer, and it cannot be chosen by the opponent as the model that suffers the penalties for refusing a Duel. The model counts as being mounted.

Scoring: Units with at least one model with Scoring are considered to be Scoring Units, which are used for winning Secondary Objectives (see section XVI.2 "Scoring Secondary Objectives", page 67). Every army needs a few Scoring units to be able to complete Secondary Objectives, which is why units with Scoring are marked in the Army Books with a special pennant icon:

Scoring can be lost during the game:

- A unit that is Fleeing loses Scoring for as long as it is Fleeing.
- An Ambushing unit that enters the Battlefield on Game Turn 4 or later loses Scoring.
- A unit that has performed a Post-Combat Reform loses Scoring until the start of the following Player Turn.

Strider: The model automatically passes Dangerous Terrain Tests taken due to Terrain.

If more than half of a unit's models have Strider, the unit never loses their Steadfast or Rank Bonus due to Terrain.

Sometimes Strider is linked to a specific type of Terrain, stated in brackets.

In this case, models with Strider are considered Striders only when interacting with such type of Terrain.

Tall:

Wizard Master: - Knows 4 spells.

- Can select from the Learned Spells 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of its chosen Path and the Hereditary Spell of its army.

The Wizard gains Channel (1) and a +1 modifier to its casting rolls, and selects its spells as described in Spell Selection
