Model Rules

Forest Walker: Models with this special rule have Strider (Forest). If a unit comprised entirely of models with this special rule starts the Close Combat Phase with the more than half of its footprint in a Forest, then all model parts with this special rule may reroll to-wound rolls of '1' in Close Combat for the duration of that phase. If the army has one or more models with Channel and Forest Walker within a Forest, add an additional +1 to friendly Channel Attempts.

Lightning Reflexes: Model parts with this special rule have +1 to hit with their Close Combat Attacks. This does not apply if the model part would be striking at initiative 0 (for example due to a Great Weapon or the Mesmeric Allure spell). If this is the case, it strikes at its own Initiative instead.

Qr codes of your army

Your can print this page to have all your army's units qrcode and cut them to stick them on your units, with them you can directly access to the unit's profil with your phone.
